

Medical Summary for mahi

☒ Final Structured Summary:\n 📋 Disease: Possible Meniscal Tear or Ligament Injury (or other knee injuries). Further evaluation is needed.\n 📋 Diagnosis: Knee pain with sharp pain on bending, swelling, and inability to bear weight, indicating a possible meniscal tear, ligament injury, or other knee injury. The specific diagnosis needs to be confirmed by a medical professional.\n 📋 Treatment: RICE protocol (Rest, Ice, Compression, Elevation), Over-the-counter pain relievers, possible knee brace, and immediate medical evaluation for diagnosis (X-ray/MRI) and further treatment (physical therapy/surgery if required).\n', type='TextMessage')]\n stop_reason="Termination triggered by keyword: '☒ Final Structured Summary'"